Bulfinch Hotel Boston Announces $5 Anniversary Deal

In celebration of its fifth anniversary, The Bulfinch Boston announces its “Cut the Bill at the Bull” promotion allowing guests to cut “the bill” or “the bull” (or whichever slogan one prefers), from the hotel check-out bill.

Now until December 30, 2009, guests booking a minimum 3 night stay will be able to choose from a selection of five, $5-priced amenities, including $5 overnight parking; $5 continental breakfast; $5 dry cleaning service item; $5 pressing service item and a $5 cocktail.*

Located in downtown Boston’s “Bulfinch Triangle,” The Bulfinch Boston is housed in a nine story flatiron building, offering 80 well-appointed rooms and suites which provide an aesthetically-pleasing and modern escape from the bustle of Boston.

Catering to leisure and business guests alike and a member of the Luxe Collection of hotels, Bulfinch’s list of amenities includes complimentary high-speed Internet access, exercise room, concierge and bellman service, and free local calls, among others.

The hotel’s cozy and popular Flat Iron Tapas Bar & Lounge pays homage to the building’s striking façade and serves guests an eclectic selection of tapas and small plates, uniquely created by Chef Mark Spinney.

The Bulfinch Boston is located at 107 Merrimac Street, Boston, MA 02114. Rates from $159 per night (based on availability).

Bulfinch Boston’s “Cut the Bill at the Bull” promotion is available until December 30, 2009 and can be booked online at www.bulfinchhotel.com or 877 267 1776 with booking code “BILL.” For images and additional information, email or call the contact listed above.

Restrictions:

New reservations only, cannot be combined with other offers. Amenity prices are adjusted to $5 each at check out upon completion of a 3 night stay. Offer subject to availability and blackout dates. *Only one amenity extended at the special $5 price for entire duration of stay.

About The Bulfinch Hotel Boston

The Bulfinch Hotel is a distinct, nine story triangle-shaped, or flat-iron, building conveniently located in downtown Boston, in the area known as the “Bulfinch Triangle” or West End. The Bulfinch Hotel offers 80 well-appointed upscale guestrooms, all of which are non-smoking. The property enables its guests with easy access to Faneuil Hall, located within a brief walk, and other Boston attractions.
