TAPAS BAR & LOUNGE

Coming March 2007 in the Bulfinch Boston Hotel

Called a "serious culinary mind" by the New York Times, acclaimed Chef Thomas Ciszak opened Copeland at the Westin Governor Morris Hotel (Morristown, NJ) in 2005. Copeland was named one of New Jersey Monthly's "2006 Hot New Restaurants" and received sterling reviews from the Newark Star Ledger, New Jersey Monthly and the New York Times. Chef Ciszak was also invited to cook at the James Beard House in New York.

Chef Ciszak brings bold yet refined flavors to the small plates menu at the Bulfinch's soon-to-open Flat Iron Tapas Bar and Lounge. A modern American interpretation of a Spanish tapas bar, Flat Iron will be the perfect place for friends to meet and enjoy a cocktail, wine or beer from local breweries.

The intimate, casual space will seat 45 in the dining room and 10 at the bar. Flat Iron will be open seven days a week for breakfast and dinner.
